100 BIG YANK BOMBERS HIT ROBOT BASES

Planes Follow Heavy Night Raid on Nazi Road Yards.

By The Associated Press
Up to 500 U. S. bombers and Liberators launched a heavy night raid on German targets in the Caen sector, including a large railway yard and a depot, without loss.

The raid followed a heavy day attack on the same targets by U. S. bombers. The night raid was the first of its kind in the Caen sector.

The bombers dropped a large quantity of incendiary bombs on the railway yard and depot, causing considerable damage.

The raid was a part of a larger campaign to disrupt German supply lines in the Caen sector.

The bombers also dropped a large quantity of high explosive bombs on the same targets.

Marion Soldiers Killed in Action

Pfc. William O. Armstrong

Sgt. Anthony J. Chontos

Pvt. Charles E. Sweeney

Staff Sgt. James B. McDonald

The four Marion service men, above, all recently reported killed in action, represent the largest toll from Marion county listed at one time thus far in the war. Messages were received by their families over the last week-end.

Staff Sgt. McDonald, 20, previously reported missing in action, was reported killed in action over Austria, according to word received by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Thacker McDonald of East Church street. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. McDonald, superintendent and matron of the Marion County juvenile detention home. He was inducted a few days after his marriage and had been in overseas service since last December. Before entering service he was employed as a telephone operator by the Erie railroad here.

Pfc. Armstrong, 37, was killed in action in Italy, May 31, a telegram from the war department notified his wife Mrs. Fern Armstrong of 876 Silver street. Pfc. Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong of Wallace street, was stationed with an infantry unit in Italy where he had been transferred after landing in Africa in January. Before entering service he was employed as a foreman at the Poliak Steel Co. and was a member of Co. B, Ohio National Guard.

Sgt. Chontos was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chontos of 532 Oak street. He was reported killed in action in Italy. Sgt. Chontos was a paratrooper and enlisted in the army in 1941. Previously he was among the first spearhead troops to land on Sicily. He was in action on the Anzio beach-head. Sgt. Chontos was employed at the Isaly Dairy Co. after graduating from St. Mary High school and was employed as a Star carrier for five years.

Pvt. Sweeney, recently listed as missing in action since May 28, was reported killed in a telegram received from the war department by his wife, Mrs. Antoinette Sweeney of 391 Park street. Pvt. Sweeney had been overseas since March 20. Before entering the army on Sept. 22, 1943, he was employed at the Marion Steam Shovel Co. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Sweeney of Chauncey, O.

GERMANS FLEE BARANOWICZE IN OLD POLAND

Berlin Reports Red Troops Now Fighting on Outskirts of Wilno.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, July 8.—The German high command announced today an abandonment of Baranowicze in old Poland—nearly 100 miles from the east Prussian border.

Baranowicze is a stronghold on a main rail and highway route, and its fall opened the way for drives to Bialystok and Warsaw, 220 miles beyond. Here the Russians were 530 miles from Berlin itself, and 480 miles from once-bested Moscow.

Fall of Baranowicze breached the secondary Nazi defense line running from Wilno, 110 miles to the northwest, to Pinsk 76 miles to the south, and flanked that fortress town in the Pripiat marshes.

The Nazi command admitted the Soviets had punched to the outskirts of Wilno, declaring tank-supported assaults on the eastern fringe of the city had been repulsed.

Powerful Red armies had hammered 217 miles in 17 days from Orsha to Wilno. Front dispatches reaching Moscow said the Soviets were within sight of the city.

Three Soviet columns were striking at the heart of Wilno, guarding the pathway to East Prussia, and Berlin broadcasts tacitly acknowledged the growing Russian threat to smash through to the Baltic states and into East Prussia itself.

Three Spearheads Aimed at Wilno
By The Associated Press
MOSCOW, July 8.—Gen. Ivan Cherniakovsky today aimed three strong spearheads of cavalry and tanks at the heart of Wilno, while inside the city the German garrison gathered for the defense of the gateway to East Prussia, less than 100 miles away.

Front dispatches said the bright, golden domes of the ancient cathedral of Saint Stanislaw and St. Nicholas glistened in the bright sun, standing on the knot of hills that make up Wilno, within sight of the Red army drawing up on the city's border.

CDX quoted Col. Ernst von Hammer, German commander, as saying that up to last night Nazi troops managed to repulse all Soviet attacks on Wilno, or hold them on the city's outskirts.

Northeast of Wilno Russian columns captured the village of Kermelshki, only 10 miles from (Turn to RUSSIA, Page 7)

New British Offensive Opened in Caen Sector

Tanks and Infantry Drive Into Heart of Nazi Defenses; Yanks Take More Towns.

By The Associated Press
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, July 8.—British tanks and infantry drove into the heart of the Caen sector today, and six towns fell to British forces, which broke through the crust of Caen's main defenses.

Simultaneously, American forces took St. Jean de Daye in the center of the Normandy front, and won more square miles of hard-fought ground.

The British advance was a part of a larger campaign to disrupt German supply lines in the Caen sector.

The British also dropped a large quantity of high explosive bombs on the same targets.

SHIPS RETURN SAFELY AFTER SECOND BLOW

20th Airforce Headquarters Report Big Bombers Meet Only Weak Opposition.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 8.—U. S. B-24 Super Fortresses which struck five Japanese naval, industrial and military targets in Japan and China last night have returned to their bases without loss of any planes, a 20th air force communiqué reported today.

In addition to hitting vital targets in Nippon's homeland, the big bombers attacked the Japanese supply base at Laosai and Hankow in China.

The Japanese targets are on the highly industrialized north-east end of Kyu, but, southward of the principal home islands.

The targets in China are regarded as important to the enemy's extended supply line for his ground troops' push against the Chinese.

The communiqué, summarizing the results of the new attack by the huge bombers, which returned to their bases without loss, said the targets were Sasebo, a big naval base; war plants at Yawata and Chitose, both on Kyushu, and Laogao, a shipping port on the China coast north of Hangchow, and Hankow, 100 miles inland on the Yangtze river.

Meet Weak Opposition
The Super Fortresses encountered only very weak fighter opposition and light anti-aircraft fire.

The communiqué said that an earlier report that Tobata across the river from Yawata, had been hit was in error.

The communiqué did not make clear whether the two targets in China were attacked by the mission while it was outbound from its China base or whether the two cities were hit on the return flight. There also was the possibility that part of the mission was diverted to attend to the two enemy China cities.

Yawata, hit before by the B-29 super-bombers on June 15, is "the Pittsburgh of Japan," source of one-fifth of the enemy's critical steel production.

Anniversary of War
The dramatic and successful assault on the Japanese mainland, announced in communiqués of the Twentieth air force headquarters in Washington, occurred on the seventh anniversary of the Marco Polo bridge incident at Peking which began Japan's long war with China.

In the early hours of Saturday morning (Washington time), the Super Fortresses had returned to their bases in China, and Gen. H. H. Arnold's headquarters announced that not one had been lost. Four of the huge bombers had been lost on the June 15 mission.

JAP CIVILIANS ON SAIPAN QUIT

Residents of Island Pass Behind U. S. Lines as Prisoners.

By The Associated Press
U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, PEARL HARBOR, July 8.—Sick, tired and starved, Japanese civilians in considerable numbers are shuffling out of their caves and down a "road of surrender" into American lines on Saipan island, new reports from the Marianas disclosed today.

Japanese soldiers trapped on the northern tip of the island still are resisting strongly, Richard Johnston representing the allied press, reported, but the civilians, "plain people capable of recognizing defeat," are streaming down a designated refugee road into American custody.

Leftists dropped behind enemy lines invited the civilians to surrender. Johnston said the entrapped military units, unable to defend themselves much longer, were making "hopeless, desperate counterattacks reminiscent of Attu and Makin," in which hundreds were killed. A few Japanese who managed to break through the American lines during the attacks were quickly mopped up by soldiers and Marines.

Yank invaders of the western Pacific now hold all but four square miles of Saipan, a prospective B-29 base for attacks upon Japan. They also have taken a sixth enemy-built airfield off North Dutch New Guinea from which to bomb the Philippines.

Chinese Troops Near North Burma Town
By The Associated Press
CHUNGKING, July 8.—Chinese troops now are less than a half-mile from the city wall of Teng-chung, north of the Burma road and the main objective of their Salween drive aimed at forming a junction with Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's forces in North Burma, the Chinese high command announced today.

The Chinese also have captured a town on the Tengchung-Lungling road about 10 miles south of Tengchung, an drive taken a village two miles northeast of the Burma road town of Lungling, the high command said.

Further northeast the Chinese were declared to have closed in on the last defenses of Shung-shan hill fortress, the reduction of which is essential before the Chinese can reopen any stretch of (Turn to PACIFIC, Page 7)

BARKLEY BACK IN NEW DEAL

Believe Kentuckian Will Place Roosevelt's Name in Nomination.

By The Associated Press
Alben W. Barkley, who angrily but temporarily resigned as senate majority leader after a spectacular loss with President Roosevelt last February, probably will nominate the Chief Executive for a fourth term.

Wide-spread acceptance of the view that the Kentuckian thus would seal completely his personal reconciliation with Mr. Roosevelt highlighted today's political developments which centered chiefly about the nation's capital.

And there was fresh speculation in Washington over Vice President Wallace's chances of re-nomination. He will make a radio address from Seattle tomorrow night, presumably to report on his trip to China and Siberia.

Predict Fourth Nomination
Talk of a Barkley nominating speech at the Democratic national convention, which opens in Chicago July 19, reinforced an expressed belief of party chiefs that the President will accept another nomination. Such an address naturally would not be made without Mr. Roosevelt's acquiescence.

Such an address, too, might embrace a pointed nod by the senate leader for party unity. It was over a tax bill veto that Barkley split with the man for whom he said he proudly had "carried the flag" for 12 years. The President declared it wasn't a tax bill the legislators had sent him but a law-relief bill "providing relief not for the needy, but for the greedy."

Call it Blow at Congress
That Barkley declared, was "a calculated and deliberate assault upon the legislative integrity of every member of congress."

So he turned in his resignation (Turn to BARKLEY, Page 7)

HOPE TO SINK SHAFT TO MINERS TODAY

By The Associated Press
BELLAIR, O., July 8.—An inspector for the U. S. bureau of mines said today it might be possible for workmen drilling shafts from the surface toward B-29 mine entrances in the blazing Peshawar mine near here to reach the tunnel in which they are trapped "sometime today."

Two drills, one nine inches and the other three inches, started blitting into the earth yesterday in a last effort to make contact with the miners who were trapped Monday when an electrical circuit short-circuited and set the shaft, the largest coal mining operation in the state, ablaze.

O. D. Simpson, senior inspector for the U. S. bureau of mines in this territory, said he believed the breakthrough into the section where the men are trapped could be made today. The exact time could not be estimated.

At 8 a. m. today the nine-inch drill had cut through 170 of the 350 to 400 feet which must be drilled to reach the dead-end underground tunnel. The three-inch drill, which had encountered pump trouble, had cut through 35 feet at the same time.

Until the drills reach the tunnel and attempts are made to get in contact with the men it can not be determined whether they are dead or alive.

B-29 Guns Keep Up Constant Fire on Foe by Remote Control

By The Associated Press
DAYTON, O., July 8.—Enemy planes attacking the B-29 Super Fortress are under continuous fire from cannon and machine guns operated by a system of remote control, the material command of the army air forces at Wright Field revealed.

Following yesterday's announcement by the war department in Washington that the Super Fortresses protect themselves from enemy planes by the remote fire control system, Brig. Gen. Franklin O. Carroll, chief of the engineering division, material command, revealed the B-29 was designed around the remote control system originated at Wright Field five years ago.

"This system is almost super-human in its ability to fire continuously upon attacking planes. When guns on one side cease to bear on the target, other guns automatically pick it up on the other side," General Carroll said.

He revealed the work on remote control firing began in the armament laboratory at Wright Field "about five years ago coincidental with the development of the B-29."

Hengyang Siege Break Best War News from China

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The Chinese success in breaking the Japanese siege of the strategic junction of Hengyang on the Peiping-Hankow-Canton railroad, is one of the best pieces of news to come out of China in a blue moon. This victory, which was torn by main force out of a very grave situation, gives at least temporary relief from the powerful Japanese offensive which has threatened to cut China in two, from north to south, and thereby vastly increase the allied difficulties of ousting the invaders from the continent. The peril isn't yet past, but the gallant Chinese have won a memorable breathing spell on the seventh anniversary of their neighbor's barbaric attack on them.

Let us get a distorted perspective of the position it must be pointed out that the American air force under Major General Chennault contributed heavily to the victory by demolishing the Japanese supply lines. The Chinese army is weakly weak in all categories of war supplies, and one has to think what must have happened long ago but for this air support.

Reason for Offensive

This deep-seated Japanese offensive, which was begun a couple of months ago, was inspired by fear of two contingencies—an amphibious invasion of southern China by the allies, and bombing of Japan from American airfields in southern China. The drive was aimed at control of the thousand-mile trunk railway running from Peiping in the north to Canton on the south coast. The Japanese long had held the northern section of this line, but lacked a vital stretch of several hundred miles in the south.

If the Japanese were successful it would give them quick communication for troops and supplies all the way from Manchuria to Canton and Hongkong—an essential if they had to defend the south coast against invasion. It also was calculated to deprive the American air force of bases in southern China within bombing reach of Japan proper.

While Japanese success in capturing the Peiping-Canton road, thus raising a barrier through the heart of China, would create grave difficulties for the allies, it wouldn't prevent the latter from finishing off Tojo's gangsters. That job is well on its way already, as witness America's fresh attack on the Japanese mainland with our mammoth B-29's. We bombed the naval base of Sasebo and the steel center of Yawata on the island of Kyushu.

Chennault's Comment
Coincident with the victory at Hengyang, General Chennault made this interesting forecast:

"The time will come soon, perhaps before another 12 months have passed, when the Japanese will be driven forever from Chinese soil. ... As soon as Hitler has been forced into unconditional surrender the entire might of the allies will be turned against Tojo and his henchmen."

You get an interesting combination when you read this along with General Charles De Gaulle's prediction yesterday in Washington that the year 1944 won't pass without the last German in France being killed, captured or chased from his soil.

Anyway, the victory in the Hengyang sector has stood off the greatest immediate threat to China. Whether this success can be made to stick remains to be seen. We must remember that our Chinese ally's position still remains grave.

the important railway that runs between Wilno and Daugavpils (Dvinsk).

The Russians were making three drives on Wilno. One came from the direction of captured Bialystok, 22 miles to the northeast. The second rolled down the Minsk-Wilno railway from the vicinity of captured Ostrovetz, 25 miles to the east. The third was down the Minsk-Wilno highway from the direction of captured Oshmyana, 28 miles to the southeast.

Still stunned from the blows received in the powerful Red army offensive, German troops poured back into Wilno. Their commanders, seeking to create a defense, threw them into prepared positions in four suburban villages outside the capital. Also of great importance to the Germans was Baranowicz, 110 miles southeast of Wilno, and the Russians were within four miles of the city limits of this town controlling the railways and highways to Poland and Germany.

Jap Retreat In China Continues

CHUNGKING, July 8.—Chinese troops have won the first important victory in their counterattacks against the secondary Japanese front north of Hengyang, occupying the town of Liling, 80 miles northeast of the rail junction, the high command announced tonight, while in the Hengyang area itself, rumors reaching this capital said Japanese forces which laid siege for 12 days were withdrawing.

Confirmation of the latter report was lacking from Hengyang, where the Chinese yesterday were reported by the high command to have broken the siege in a sudden stab from the southwest. It was unknown whether the Japanese were regrouping their forces for a fresh assault down the Canton-Hankow railway or whether they now were abandoning that portion of their ambitious project as too costly in view of the vulnerability of their long supply lines.

Chungking sources at the same time received with reserve and even extreme skepticism another rumor that the Russians were massing troops on the Manchurian border, and that the Japanese consequently were retransferring some of the divisions sent deep into China from those areas.

De Gaulle Returns To White House Today

WASHINGTON, July 8.—General Charles De Gaulle goes to the White House again today to continue his talks with President Roosevelt, but the round of formal receptions and presentations continues unabated.

De Gaulle has seen Roosevelt on each of the three days he has been in Washington, and their conversations are understood to be progressing successfully. Primary aim of the talks is to establish friendly relations between this government and the French committee, and President Roosevelt said yesterday the question of recognition would not come up.

Last night De Gaulle was honored guest at a dinner by Acting Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson which was attended by about 60 Army-Navy officials including Chief of Staff General George C. Marshall.

21 BODIES REMOVED FROM WRECKED TRAIN

By The Associated Press

JELICO, Tenn., July 8.—Wrecking crews amid smashed coaches of a shattered troop train removed additional bodies of soldiers early today and Night Police Chief Elmer Roberts said the death toll apparently was at least 25.

Roberts said 21 bodies had been lifted up the steep sides of the mountain gorge, where a Louisville and Nashville train left the tracks Thursday night, and four more had been located in the wreckage.

The army had not changed its list of known dead—10. Workers at the scene estimated it might be noon Sunday before the task of clearing wreckage was completed.

Army officers said 389 officers and men—302 of them selectees—boarded the train at its point of departure. The injured included 92 hospitalized at Clinton, Tenn., and ten who received first aid.

Cause of the wreck was under investigation by the federal bureau of investigation. Fireman J. W. Tummins of Etowah, Tenn., shortly before he died of injuries, told a Knoxville Journal reporter: "She jumped the tracks."

The "jump" plunged the locomotive and four coaches down the steep defile. A fifth coach dangled precariously over the rocky incline. Most of the soldier dead were caught in the splintered wreckage. Fire swept the baggage and kitchen cars. Seven coaches remained on the tracks.

Home addresses of seven soldiers already identified were still unknown, army authorities announced their serial numbers only. They were listed as: Donald J. Clark (35845018); William M. Gorey (35845175); Dal Matlix (35844937); W. C. McChesney (35844928); John Wickline (35845171); Robert H. Baird (35845004); and Leonard J. Bellag (35814845).

MINERS

Workers' officials, company spokesmen—all voices the opinion the men are not alive. But hope persists among many miners who daily worked beside them.

The mine was sealed Thursday morning in a final effort to extinguish the fire which got out of control before rescue crews could reach the men trapped in dead-end tunnels behind the fierce flames.

Veterans at the Powhatan pit—the state's largest—pointed out as late as this morning that fully one-third of the entrapped men were among the ablest and most experienced in life-saving and rescue work among the company's thousand-odd employees.

The task of sinking the shaft started at 9:30 p. m. last night.

German Murder 1,000, Wipe Out Greek Town

By The Associated Press

JZMIR, TURKEY, July 7.—(Delayed)—Copies of a Greek puppet government communiqué which reached here today said that the Nazis on June 10 slaughtered more than 1,000 residents of the Greek village of Distomo in a cold blooded reprisal comparable to that carried out at the Czechoslovak town of Lidice.

The communiqué said that not even babies in arms were spared and the massacre was crowned by the burning of the village, familiar to many American tourists. The killing was carried out by the Nazis as revenge for the death of 30 German soldiers in a battle with resistance groups near the village.

COUNTY FAR SHORT OF E BOND QUOTA

Drive Will Center on That Goal for Rest of Month.

Marion county's total purchases in the Fifth War Loan drive amount to $5,324,873, topping the county quota of $3,355,000 by $1,959,973, the bond committee reported today. While the county has oversubscribed the quota in total sales, the E bond quota of $810,000 has not been reached by something like $220,000.

Today marks the close of the campaign for the sale of 2 1/2, 2 1/4, and 1 1/2 per cent Treasury bonds, and efforts of the committee will center on the goal of the E bond quota for the remainder of the month. Leaders emphasize that unless the E quota is reached they cannot regard Marion county's campaign a success even though the other departments of the drive go far beyond their quotas.

SEE RACIAL BASIS FOR NEXT CONFLICT

By The Associated Press

YELLOW SPRINGS, O., July 8.—Present racial misunderstandings could result in a third world war, five speakers told the Institute on Conditions for an Enduring Peace at Antioch College last night.

William H. Chamberlin, former Far Eastern correspondent and now a teacher at the Harvard school of overseas administration, asserted during a panel discussion on "color as a world problem" that:

"India and China surge with a new national feeling. When they have acquired sufficient technology to meet the western peoples on equal terms they may well revolt against their continued treatment as inferior races."

"The colored peoples of the world are disillusioned about the sincerity of the leaders of democracy and Christianity," Dr. Charles Wesley, president of Wilberforce university said. "They look to America's treatment of her own colored problem as a test case for the four freedoms."

Rayford W. Logan, dean of Howard university graduate school; Boris Mazumdar, Hindu sociologist and Bernard C. Clausen, Cleveland, O., pastor, also asserted two-thirds of the world's peoples are colored, and that in their estimation "white supremacy" is rule of the majority by a minority.

The five speakers, two white, two Negroes and a Hindu, agreed that "unqualified equality is our only hope for permanent peace."

LONG ILLNESS FATAL TO NOAH A. MILLIGAN

Dies at Home of Daughter Here; Funeral at Radnor.

Noah A. Milligan, 62, died in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Vernon Parish of 478 East George street, yesterday afternoon following a long illness.

A native of Free township, Delaware county, he was a retired farmer. His wife, Mrs. Lucy Milligan, died in 1936. He lived at the home of the daughter here for some time.

Surviving besides Mrs. Parish are three other children, Mrs. O. C. Johnson of Marysville, Mrs. Paul Shof of Delaware, Gaylord Milligan of Ostrander, Harold Milligan of Marion, Pvt. Gerald Milligan stationed in England, Sgt. Lloyd Milligan, stationed in the South Pacific area, 10 grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. George Warner of Marion and a brother, William Milligan of Radnor. Another son, Sgt. Floyd Milligan, winner on a Liberator bomber, stationed in England, was killed in action last October.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday at 2 p. m. in the South Radnor Stone church of which he was a member, and burial will be in Thompson cemetery near the church. Friends may call at the home of Mrs. Shof, 84 South Liberty street, Delaware.

Marion Wins 6 to 5 for Second Victory of Series Over Springfield

Calling of Game in 9th Frame Cancels One Giant Run.

By BOB COCHERL

Marion Star Sports Writer

Last night at Lincoln park the Marion Stars won another game over Springfield by the score of 6 to 5. It was a narrow affair as Springfield came to bat in the ninth inning trailing by a score of 5 to 4 and proceeded to make a new game of it as they scored the tying run. This was of no use, however, as the game was called because of darkness, after Springfield had been retired. Since Marion was unable to bat in the ninth the score remained at the eighth inning in which the Stars won leading by the score of 5 to 4.

Marion took one run in the second inning with two men out. Brodhead walked and went clear around third and scored on Bailey's clean single to right center. Again in the third inning Marion tallied as Smith tripped the ball in right field and came home on Jerski's slow roller down first base line.

Score Three In Fourth

Then in the fourth the locals scored three as Morneweg started the ball rolling by hitting a triple to right field. Vickery sent a slow, but high bounding ball toward the third baseman, who in an attempt to pick it up on the short hop, let it go through him into left field for an error. Morneweg scored. Brodhead bunted safely down first with Vickery going to third. Bailey struck out and Pace was out in an attempted double play, pitcher to second to first. Vickery scoring Brodhead then stole third and came home on an error by the catcher who threw wild to third.

Marion's final tally came in the fifth as with two men out, shortstop Augie Granzig, lifted a long home run over the left field fence. It looked like the Harelymen might score another tally in the sixth when with two out, Dick Pace hit a single in right field and Carlsen, batting for Oley, hit a popper near the pitcher's mound with both the first baseman and catcher attempting to make the catch. The catcher, however, tipped the ball and was charged with an error, allowing Pace to go to third. Smith ended the threat with a fly to left.

Giants Score Four
Springfield scored four of their five runs in the sixth inning on three walks, a single, a double and an error. Walker, first man up, singled to left field. Faulkner walked and Bolick fled out to center. Both runners then advanced on a passed ball. Carlenauer hit a hot ground ball which careened off Oley's shin rolling out into right field for a double, scoring Walker and Faulkner. Simpson then walked. Malaria struck out. Sigel walked and Dernerier was safe on Smith's bad throw to first.

THREE-WAY SCRAP FOR SECOND PLACE HIGHLIGHT OF AA

Toledo Moves to Third as Columbus Defeats Louisville Colonels.

By The Associated Press

What with the pace-setting Milwaukee Braves off on another winning spree, all the excitement in the American association penultimate round concerns the current three-way scrap for second place.

The Giants scored their final run in the seventh as three-run homer by Walker, hit a single to left field, scoring Walker. Carlenauer popped to pitcher and Simpson, grounded into a fast double play, Smith to Brodhead to Jerski ending the uprising. This was Marion's second double-play as in the fourth inning Carlenauer hit to Jerski who threw to Brodhead getting Brodhead to Jerski getting Carlenauer.

This victory gave Eddie Oley two victories and no defeats. It was Goodwin's third loss in six tries.

Tonight Marion plays its last of a three game series with Springfield. Newark comes here Sunday for a four game series including a doubleheader Sunday.

Joe Hill will be on the mound for Marion tonight seeking his third win in six starts. Pappas will be Springfield's pitcher.

MARION AND WALDO TEAMS PLAY MONDAY

By The Associated Press

Sandwich Bar and Waldo softball teams will meet Monday to battle for the Commercial league leadership. Both teams are undefeated and both boast a powerful offense. Sandwich Bar has an average of 14.5 runs per game and Waldo has a run average of 12.3 per game. Softball fans who see these two teams clash at the Metal Products diamond next Monday night will be watching the two hardest hitting teams in the Commercial league have produced in many years. With emphasis on attack, this game should be a thriller for those spectators that like to see a high-scoring ball-swinging game. The team winning this game will rate as favorite to win the league championship and a place in the world series playoff.

BUYERS SHOW NEW INTEREST RAILS AND MANY INDUSTRIALS ATTRACT BIDDING IN TODAY'S TRADING. FRED WARRING SIGNS WITH BLU NETWORK

NEW YORK, July 8.—Buyers displayed renewed courage in today's brief stock market, bidding up rails and a wide assortment of industrial fractions to a point or more at peaks for about seven weeks. Basically, the good war news continued as an inspiration for bullish forces. In addition, domestic political hopefulness was a factor and near-term prospects for business, as a whole, served to accentuate the purchasing urge. Carriers, steels and motors, specifically, had the benefit of planning for a near-term conversion of some automotive plants to civilian production. Not overlooked as an influence on the mounting prices was the huge volume of idle funds in the nation, which, sooner or later, were expected to seek profitable employment. The national income for the first five months of 1944, the Commerce department announced, totaled $62,181,000,000, or 12 percent greater than in the corresponding 1943 period. The bid got off to a fast start as the market opened, when external orders had been filled, their were subsequent slowdowns.
